

Life and death

What is life? What is death?

What do you hope to achieve with your life before you die?

Do you believe that you are using your life well, or wasting it?

Tell me some big medium-sized and small life choices you made. If you could go back in time, would you do them differently?

What are the phases of life? Tell me some good and bad memories you have from each.

Which one did you enjoy the most?

How can you incorporate study/friend/exercise into all parts of your life?

What roles do you play in life?

Rank in order of importance: family, friends, education, pleasure, public service, personal challenge, financial freedom, positive attitude.

How could you improve this current phase of your life? Think of both big and small things.

Does enjoying one phase of your life boost your performance in others?

How did you reach the situation you are currently in?

What are you unhappy with in your life these days? What do you envy about other people's lives?

Would you like to live forever?

If you could live forever, what would you hope to achieve?

What do you know about the evolution of mankind?

Do you believe in the afterlife? Where is it and what is it like? How do you get there?

Do you work hard to live, or work to live well?

What parts do we separate our lives into? Which of these are most important?

How can the different parts of life affect each other?

How did you reach the situation you are currently in?

Why is death a taboo subject in some cultures?

How can people die?

What are funerals like in your country? Are people in your country normally buried or cremated?

Would you want to know the date of your death and how you die?

If you could choose how you would die, how would you want to die?

What do you know about cryogenics?

What do you think it would be like to live during the days of the Black Death?

If the Black Death came about again, do you think the world will be prepared for it?

What is an autopsy?

What do you know about Death Row?

If you were on Death Row, what would your last meal be?

Would you consider euthanasia if someone you loved was dying a slow, painful death?

If you could be reincarnated, what would you be reincarnated as?

What's your opinion on suicide?